DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

- 1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
- Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue. 2.
- Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
- Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating 4. obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 49-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Galligan et al., U.S. patent No's 5,620,672 or 5,422,331.

Application/Control Number: 09/766,723

Art Unit: 1744

Galligan et al., teach the application of a pollutant treating material to an air contact surface of an air handling system, including heat exchange means, the fan or compressor. An ozone abating catalyst is taught as the pollutant treating material, and the patents clearly teach application of the catalyst to outdoor, atmospheric air, prior to delivery of that air to the interior of an aircraft, further teaching that the catalyst is applicable to building air handling components as indicated above. See column 8, lines 5-45, particularly lines 30-36 of '672 and column 8, lines 25-65 of '331.

The Galligan et al., references do not explicitly state that the catalyst is applied to an outdoor component of an air handling system for a building, however, it does specifically recite application of the catalyst to components that are conventionally found outdoors and because the patents clearly teach ozone-abatement of outdoor atmospheric air prior to delivery indoors, it would have been well within the purview of one of ordinary skill in the art to apply the catalyst to an outdoor component such as the condenser in the systems of the Galligan et al., references because such components would clearly supply the turbulence to the air being treated as required by the references, as well as provide treatment of the outdoor, atmospheric air prior to delivery to the interior of the building, as is taught within those patents.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 49-52 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Application/Control Number: 09/766,723

Art Unit: 1744

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
